3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding to claim 1, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first pixel including a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion; a second pixel including a second EL element for emitting green light in the pixel portion; a third pixel including a third EL element for emitting a blue light in the pixel portion; wherein a triplet compound is used in the first EL element while a singlet compound is used in each of the second and third EL element.

Regarding to claim 2, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first pixel including a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion; a second pixel including a second EL element for emitting green light in the pixel portion; a third pixel including a third EL element for emitting a blue light in the pixel portion; wherein a triplet compound is used in the first EL element while a singlet compound is used in each of the second and third EL element.

Regarding to claim 3, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first pixel including a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion; a second pixel including a second EL element for emitting green light in the pixel portion; a third pixel including a third EL element for emitting a blue light in the pixel portion; wherein a triplet compound is used in the first EL element while a singlet compound is used in each of the second and third EL element.

Regarding to claim 4, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first pixel including a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion; a second pixel including a second EL element for emitting green light in the pixel portion; a third pixel including a third EL element for emitting a blue light in the pixel portion; wherein a triplet compound is used in the first EL element while a singlet compound is used in each of the second and third EL element.

Regarding to independent claim 53, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device having a pixel portion over a substrate, the pixel portion comprising: a first EL element for emitting a red light, the first EL element comprising a triplet compound; and at least one of the second EL element and the third EL element comprises a singlet compound.

Regarding to independent claim 54, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device having a pixel portion over a substrate, the pixel portion comprising: a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by triplet exciton and wherein at least one of the second EL element and the third EL element comprises a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by singlet exciton.

Regarding to independent claim 58, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion, the first EL element comprising a triplet compound; wherein at least one of the second EL element and the third EL element comprises a singlet compound.

Regarding to independent claim 59, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by a triplet exciton; wherein at least one of the second EL element and the third EL element comprises a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by a singlet exciton.

Regarding to independent claim 60, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a first EL element for emitting a red light in the pixel portion, the first EL element comprising a triplet compound; wherein each of the second EL element and the third EL element comprise a singlet compound.

Regarding to independent claim 61, prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach or suggest a light emitting device comprising: a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by a triplet exciton wherein each of the second EL element and the third EL element comprise a light emitting layer comprising an organic compound which emits light by a singlet exciton.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
